The Time is Now! - Results

via Ann McGill - 1/29/2003

The Time is NOW!

I heard the call. Took action.

I sent out a request for prayer support for energizing assistance and stabilizing support.

Here's what happened

There was an immediate influx of energy.

It was noticeably substantial.

I experienced being filled in, fluffed up, puffed out.

I soon felt ever so much lighter, freer ... able to ...

Before anyone did anything, I felt the lift.

I had assumed people would have to reply

for me to receive the energy.

I assumed people would have to know about my appeal for desired results to occur. Not true.

Discovery

My surmising explanation goes like this.

I sent emails to people who wish me well, God speed, to succeed.

The reason I got such an energy rush, was that

The message was received and responded to in consciousness.

"We are One"

This is why my need was so readily heard, assistance so speedily sent quick as a positive thought can fly through the ethers.

Within 48 hours a priority situation reached solution.

Summary

Together our thoughts have tremendous co-creative capacity.

We can co-create in Consciousness.

Together, doing nothing more than allowing positive thoughts to be think, vitalizing energy to be anonymously sent, we can accomplish much.

Is this not the conclusion you draw from our story?

Has this also been your experience?

Think what we might accomplish if we took advantage of this miracle-making power,
coming together in consciousness,
as vehicles of empowerment, conduits of vitalizing energy.

n/ Joy ... b/ Peace ... w/ Love ...
