Window of Opportunity

via Ann McGill - 12/01/2004

The Time is NOW!

This is what our first “Message from the Universe” said January '03.

This is when I personally decided to go for the Brass Ring.
Clarity of Intention provides the energy and focus that makes the difficult possible.

Windows of opportunity last so long.

Then they close, shut down.

Recently I realized my Window of Opportunity is soon to end.
That got my attention. Now or Never was the message.
The choices I did or did not make now would have long-term ramifications.

Am I still on the right path? Do I need to choose again?

Am I limiting future possibilities thro resistance and unwillingness?
Am I giving my choices my all, doing my best?

These were the questions I asked myself. I was not pleased with the answers. I knew I had to act, or I was going to miss the boat. It was time to recommit and reclaim my intention.

Spirit supports those who help themselves.

Spirit cannot assist those who resist.

Do you need to make a conscious decision, as I did?
Are you caught up in slogging through, rather than looking forward, aiming high?
Are you reaching out for all the support you can get,
from Holy Spirit, appropriate professionals, family, friends?
Are you doing what's needed to help yourself?

When need is matched by willingness and progress is ripely ready to unfold, solutions appear – resolution happens; automatically.

Teachers show up, miracles occur.

The cycle of Life goes through agonizingly long periods of preparation that suddenly trigger, flower and unfold into brief spells of rapid breakthrough – assuming, of course, you've done your homework.

Now is the Time! Breakthroughs, shifts in consciousness, are happening everywhere; for many people. You can ride along on this energy. It will support you too.
Take advantage of this window of opportunity while you can.

Once I reclaimed my original intentions, almost immediately all kinds of progress started falling into place. New vistas have begun to unfold.

n/ Joy ... b/ Peace ... w/ Love ...
